“SHIELD WIN” FOR UNDER 14 FEILE GIRLS

Back row; Nicola Moran, Julie Rodgers, Aoife Delaney, Rachael Brown, Laura O Hare, Amy Fitzpatrick, Anna Quinn, Ciara black, Shauna Bates, Nicole Bennet, Emma Nolan, Shauna O Connor, Aisling O Mahoney.

Front row: Jane Burke, Amy Doolan, Lisa Creanor, Ciara Mc Williams, Sam Stokes, Emma Weafer, Ciara Prunty, Gráinne O Brien, Eimear Hogan, Laura Bourke, Aoife Mc Caffrey, and Laura Whitty.

Missing from photo are: Katie Halford, Aifric Mc Diramada and Rioghain Ni Lorcaín

Well done to the U14 Feile Girls Team who won the Shield Final. Each member of the panel gave their best in each of the four games and were a credit to their families and Club.

In the four matches that were played, the first was an easy win to Castleknock against St. Brigids with a score of 4-07 to 0-02. Brilliant goalkeeping from Emma Weafer in the second match against Ballyboden St. Enda's kept the Ballyboden forwards at bay throughout the match, which included a fantastic penalty save. It was the best game of the competition but unfortunately ended with Castleknock down by one point. Moving onto the third game, it was a very close contest with late scores from Cabinteely which won them the game. However, Castleknock ended a great day winning the Shield Final against Skerries Harps with a score of 2-07 to 0-02. There were some great scores in the Final and well done to Ciara Prunty who took player of the match.

U14 BOYS FEILE TEAM

Our U14 boys competed in Division 3 of the Dublin Feile last weekend at St. Marks in Tallaght. The opening match was against the host Club who despite a brave effort were heavily defeated. Next up was St. Pat's of Palmerstown whom we beat by four points and then defeated St. Judes of Templeogue by just one point in a thriller. Having won all three matches, Castleknock met the runners up from the other division 3 section, Ballymun Kickhams in the Semi-Final on Saturday afternoon. Castleknock proved far too strong and ran out easy winners with a score of 7-10 to 3-07.

The Final was played in Neamh Mearnog on Sunday afternoon against our old rivals, St. Judes whom we had beaten in the round robin section. Unfortunately, St. Judes got the better of us winning by 1-07 to 0-06 in a thrilling final. The match was spoiled somewhat by a very strong wind, however Judes proved worthy winners and we congratulate their achievement.

Congratulations to Emma Bates & Lorna Hillery who secured Dublin's first Minor Leinster Championship title in 15 years. Good luck in the All-Ireland Semi-Final on 9th July.

Leah Mullins, Dzana Hadzic, Orlaith Darcy, Fiona Lyons, Catroina Murphy, Niamh Smith, Shauna Harries, Alex Howard, Niamh Keirnan, Sorcha Quinn, Michaela Power, Bronagh Quinn, Clara Butler, Amy Mahony, Deirbhile Quinn, Niamh Hartnett.

U11 Camogie - The girls are in their first year in this division and are playing against a lot of teams where the girls are much older than them- most of our girls are only 9. They have acquitted themselves very well and are steadily improving. They played against Oliver Plunkett's last Thursday and lost. They were also narrowly beaten by St. Brigid's on Monday night.

U10 Division 1 Football- The girls remain unbeaten in the league this season. Last Wednesday they beat Scoil Uí Chonaill and on Saturday they travelled to St. Sylvester's in Malahide where they also won their match.

Sean & Majella McLoughlin and Ciaran & Bernie Black.

SECOND PLACE

Ann Treacy, Susan Spillane, Denise O'Neill & Emer Mullins

Well done to the organisers and sponsors of the Pub Quiz held in the Carpenter on Monday 9th May where it was well supported. Our Quiz Master on the night was Sean Farrell who did a great job. The tie-breaker questions could not separate the top two teams and so the night ended with joint first place winners (as pictured above). Thanks to all who came along on the night!
